

TO THE READERS AND AUTHORS OF THE „AUREA IURIS ROMANT“ JOURNAL

Aurea iuris romani represents the activities of the Interuniversity Centre for the Study of Roman law and Romanistic Tradition with University of National and World Economy, Sofia, and relies entirely of the University support.

AIR is a review about Roman law and Legal history, but also about the studies of any legal systems from Antiquity, Medieval times, or Humanism and even Modern times, related somehow to the History of law. It is a forum for discussion and articles, reviews, announcements, materials. AIR gives an opportunity to young and advanced national and foreign scholars to publish the results of their original research.

Submit your manuscript as a file via e-mail: law@unwe.bg. The articles are subject to peer review. The manuscripts in the following fields shall not go through peer review: Discussions (actual and arguable issues of doctrine, legislation); Reviews; Scientific events (conferences, anniversary meetings, etc.).

The manuscripts of articles are subject to peer review by at least two qualified specialists. They should evaluate whether the journal could accept the text for publication. The reviewers, who are not aware of the author's name, may directly accept the manuscript for publication or may return it with recommendation for further revision, or may suggest that the manuscript should not be published. The editors board should have the final decision.

All accepted for publication materials shall go through scientific, grammar and language editing and AIR publishes them after consulting the final content and text formatting of the manuscript with the authors.

FORMAT OF THE CONTENT OF THE MANUSCRIPTS

The volume of an article should have up to 20 standard pages – one page should have 1800 characters with spaces, footnotes included. AIR also accepts critically evaluating materials, the volume of which should have up to 10 standard pages, as well as other materials such as reviews of books and others up to 5 standard pages in size.

TO THE READERS AND AUTHORS...

The texts should study a specific scientific problem by offering an original position or solving a practical problem. This study should have also a review of other researchers' accomplishments on the topic. Besides, analytical overviews may also be presented.

The articles should comply at least MS Office 2003 (or higher version), the font Times New Roman, size 12 (including characters of Latin and Ancient Greek or other ancient language; for the Old Bulgarian – Bukyvede font). The text should align on both sides with line spacing of 1.5. When using ancient language, the author should supply a pdf version of the article.

The journal accepts articles in Bulgarian, English, French, Italian, German and Russian. Authors who do not use these languages as their mother tongue should ensure that a person who uses the language as a mother tongue should review the final draft of the publications. The manuscripts should have a format according to the following requirements.

TITLE

The author should write it in the original language of the article and give at once after its English translation.

AUTHOR'S NAME

The author should write down at the beginning his/her name in the original language of the article, and in a footnote its English version, writing down his/her affiliation and current email address.

SUMMARY

About 150 – 300 words in English.

KEY WORDS

After the summary, the author gives the key words in English (maximum 6).

CITATION

Footnotes

Place photos, tables, diagrams, and schemes (if any) in the correct place in the text, number them sequentially and give annotating texts in the footnotes.

AT FIRST ENCOUNTER

Indicate the full data for any publication in the following order: [INITIAL OF THE FIRST NAME OR THE CORPORATE NAME] full stop [SURNAME] full stop [TITLE] full stop [respectively the ORDER OF THE EDITION] full stop [PLACE OF PUBLICATION] comma [PUBLISHER] comma [YEAR] comma [PAGES].

MONOGRAPH

[THE BOOK TITLE, in italics].

ARTICLE OR CHAPTER IN A PERIODICAL, SERIES, OR COLLECTION

First encounter

[THE NAME OF THE PERIODICAL, SERIES, OR COLLECTION, in italics].

Next encounter

Indicate only [THE SURNAME OR THE CORPORATE NAME], (THE YEAR OF PUBLICATION, in parenthesis) comma [PAGE NUMBERING].

Page numbering

By citation in Cyrillic, the abbreviation of the lowercase letter ‘c.’ is placed before the page number and then the page number with Arabic numerals.

By citation in Latin, the pages are marked respectively with ‘p.’, or ‘pp.’, ‘S.’, or ‘SS’, when more than one page is in question, and the numbers are in Arabic numerals.

More than one encounter for the same author in the same year

By abbreviated citation, if there is more than one work in the same year, after the year show in the corresponding sequence letters of the Latin alphabet [THE YEAR a], [THE YEAR b], [THE YEAR c] and so on.

Example

M o n o g r a p h y

First encounter, one author

M. Kaser. Römische Rechtsgeschichte. 2 – te neubearbeitet. Aufl. Göttingen, Vandenhoeck & Ruprecht, 1967, S. 28.

Next encounter, one author

Kaser (1967), S. 28.

With two or more authors:

Use for several authors, the Latin abbreviation „et al.“

First encounter

M. Kaser, und K. Hackl. Das römische Zivilprozessrecht. 2., vollst. überarb. und erw. Aufl. München, Beck, 1996, S. 28.

Next encounter

Kaser, Hackl (1996), S. 28.

Without author

[THE TITLE, in italics] full stop [PLACE OF ISSUE] comma [YEAR] comma [PAGES].

With editor(s), compiler(s)

G. Wissowa (Hrsg.). Paulys Real – Encyclopädie der classischen Altertumswissenschaft. Neue Bearbeitung. 6 – er B. Ephoros – Fornaces. Stuttgart, Metzler, 1909.

Article, study in a collection, book chapter or other periodical

M. Kaser. I. Über relatives Eigentum' im altrömischen Recht. ZSSRGRA, 102 (1985), SS. 1 – 39.

Citation of Internet sources

A. Watson. The Development of the Praetor's Edict. The Journal of Roman Studies, 60 (1970), pp. 105 – 119 [online] <https://www.jstor.org/stable/299417> [access 10.02.20].

ARTICLE STRUCTURE

The presented text might consist of introduction, explanation of the method, description of the study and the results and a conclusion.

Number the footnotes consecutively with Arabic numbers.

QUOTED LITERATURE

Place the list of cited sources after the main text, without numbering, alphabetically ordered according to the last name of the authors, starting with titles in Latin alphabet, then in Cyrillic, then in other alphabets.

Show the data as under the requirements of first encounter except for the beginning of quotation where it should place the surname or the corporate name: [THE SURNAME OR THE CORPORATE NAME] full stop [INITIAL OF THE FIRST NAME] full stop [TITLE] full stop [respectively the ORDER OF THE EDITION] full stop [PLACE OF PUBLICATION] comma [PUBLISHER] comma [YEAR] comma [PAGES]. The text format is Normal Heading.

Monograph

[THE BOOK TITLE, in italics].

Kaser, M. Römische Rechtsgeschichte. 2 – te neubearbeitet. Aufl. Göttingen, Vandenhoeck & Ruprecht, 1967, S. 28.

Kaser, M., und Hackl, K. Das römische Zivilprozessrecht. 2., vollst. überarb. und erw. Aufl. München, Beck, 1996, S. 28.

Article or Chapter in a periodical, series, or collection

[THE NAME OF THE PERIODICAL, SERIES, OR COLLECTION, in italics] coma [VOLUME NUMBER] comma [ISSUE NUMBER, if such] (YEAR) comma [PAGES].

Kaser, M. I. Über relatives Eigentum' im altrömischen Recht. ZSSRGRA, 102 (1985), SS. 1 – 39.

In the description of the Cyrillic or any non – Latin alphabet literature transliterate the item as mentioned in the Cited Sources list. The Bulgarian literature transliteration follows the Transliteration Act, issued on March 9,

TO THE READERS AND AUTHORS...

2009. Please refer the following instrument for online transliteration:
https://www.lexilogos.com/keyboard/bulgarian_conversion.htm.
The author handles the accuracy of the translation and transliteration.